Women’s Civic Institute
Apply for Spring 2019

Thank you for your interest in the Women’s Civic Institute. This program helps students who self-identify as women learn about the many dimensions of civic engagement and prepare for leadership in public service. Please complete the information below and email your application to kriegsav@siu.edu by Monday, November 12, 2018.

The selection committee will review all complete applications and contact applicants for interviews in November. Participants are selected based on their application and interview.

Participants are expected to attend the events listed below. A detailed schedule with dates and locations will be sent when spring semester begins.

- January – Civic engagement workshop (one event)
- February – Leadership training and social (two events)
- March - panel of elected and non-profit women and community service project (two events)
- April - Final reflection/discussion (one event)

If you have questions, or would like more information, please contact: Savannah Krieg, Graduate Assistant, at 453-7520 or kriegsav@siu.edu.

If you are unable to email the application, please print and bring it to Ms. Krieg at the Center for Service-Learning and Volunteerism, Room 495, Student Services Building.
WCI 2019 - Application

Name:

Hometown:

Email:

Phone Number: ID number:

Current Year in School and Major:

Community service experience:

Particular areas of interest in public service:

How could this program help develop your skill set as a civic-minded individual?

How do you plan to use/share the knowledge you gain through WCI to make a difference on campus and in the community?